

Maximize your effectiveness. Move to the next growth curve.
This Way Up.

You are a high performing executive, with an overabundance of talent and energy. Your team thrives off your success and your momentum. You want to ensure that you can keep the growth coming, year in and year out. You feel the need to re-energize and re-commit so you can continue onto the next growth curve.

It seems that you are needed for every decision and every situation. There are so many things on your plate. You need to find a better way to manage.

Life used to be much simpler and you had the time to dedicate to your efforts. Today's schedule is so hectic and you want to eliminate the distractions so you can focus on the important tasks.

Through it's "Trusted Advisor" program, NEXT Strategic Advisors can help you maximize your effectiveness and achieve your potential.

It is not rocket science. To galvanize your efforts and exploit your talents, you need Vision, Focus and Discipline. These three simple words provide structure to your personal management system.

NEXT's Trusted Advisor program helps entrepreneurial leaders clarify their vision and their objectives; focus their resources; and by setting goals and milestones, NEXT instills the proper discipline to achieve objectives.

Regular one-on-one meetings will allow the business leader to share ideas, thoughts and strategies with an advisor who will invest the time to understand their industry, their business, their opportunities and challenges.

This relationship serves as a confidential sounding board, helps the leader test their perspective, develop confidence, galvanize their ideas and plan their action.

Different than traditional executive coaching, where the primary focus is on the leader as a person, the Trusted Advisor program is applied and focuses on the business leader and the strategic opportunities faced by the company.

The Trusted Advisor program helps to build and develop high performance leaders and management teams by focusing on strategic consulting / coaching to strategize, execute, manage and finance growth.
